"REGISTERED"
In the Department of Justice of the city of Tashkent
"____" _____ 2016
No. _____

"APPROVED"
By the decision of the 9th Extraordinary General Meeting of the Public Association of Disabled People in Tashkent "SHAROIT PLYUS" dated November 24, 2016

CHARTER

OF THE PUBLIC ASSOCIATION OF DISABLED PEOPLE OF TASHKENT CITY "SHAROIT PLUS"

Tashkent-2016

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. The Public Association of Disabled People of Tashkent City "SHAROIT PLUS" (hereinafter - the Association) was created by initiative citizens on a voluntary basis and is considered a self-governing organization, the main purpose of which is not to generate income (profit) and whose income (profit) is not distributed among its participants (members).
1.2. The association is organized to protect the rights and legitimate interests of individuals, as well as other democratic values, achieve social, cultural and educational goals, meet spiritual and other non-material needs, conduct charitable activities and for other socially useful purposes.
1.3. The official name of the Association:
- in Uzbek: Toshkent shahar "SHAROIT PLYUS" nogironlar jamoat birlashmasi;
- in Russian: Общественное объединение инвалидов города Ташкента «ШАРОИТ ПЛЮС»;
- in English: Public Association of Disabled People of Tashkent City "SHAROIT PLUS".
1.4. The association carries out its activities in accordance with the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Laws of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On non-governmental non-profit organizations", "On guarantees for the activities of non-governmental non-profit organizations", "On public associations in the Republic of Uzbekistan" and other regulatory legal acts, as well as in accordance with this Charter.
1.5. The association is considered a legal entity from the moment of its state registration in the prescribed manner, and also has its own independent balance sheet, property, bank accounts in national and foreign currencies, a round seal with its official name and a corner stamp, symbols and an official website.
1.6. The association independently chooses the economic, technical path and the path of its development. It may have property, personal non-property rights, as well as assume obligations and appear in court in the status of a plaintiff or defendant.
1.7. The association is not responsible for state obligations. The State, in turn, is not liable for the Association's obligations. The association may conduct any type of activity not prohibited by legislative acts within the framework of the goals outlined in this Charter.
1.8. The state can support separate socially useful programs of the Association. Intervention of state bodies and their officials in the activities of the Association, as well as interference of the Association in the activities of state bodies and their officials is not allowed.
1.9. The organizational and legal form of the Association is considered to be a voluntary association of citizens, a public association in order to meet their spiritual or other non-material needs on the basis of their common interests in the manner prescribed by law.
1.10. The territory where the Association carries out its activities is the city of Tashkent.
1.11. Location of the governing body of the Association (postal address): 100034, Tashkent city, Almazar district, Karasarayskaya street, house 353.

II. MAIN GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The main goals of the association are as follows:

protection of the rights of persons with disabilities and members of their families, close cooperation with state bodies and public organizations on the path of creating equal opportunities for their comprehensive development, creating the necessary conditions for persons with disabilities to use their creative abilities, their mental and spiritual development, their implementation as worthy representatives of their era on the basis of universal and spiritual values, conducting charitable activities, etc.

To achieve the goals set by the Association, it performs the following tasks:

– increasing the self-confidence, activity, initiative and abilities of low-income persons with disabilities who stay at home and cannot join the society, assisting them in integrating into society by teaching them skills and accepting the situation as it is;

– directing persons with disabilities to free thinking, independent decision-making and independent living. Strengthening their skill for independent living;

– removing the various physical, social and environmental barriers that prevent persons with disabilities from participating fully and effectively in daily life and work activities on an equal basis with everyone, and towards creating reasonable accommodations for them;

– holding seminars and trainings on the topic of disabilities in secondary and higher educational, medical institutions, private enterprises, state institutions, public associations and self-government bodies of citizens, as well as conducting joint work with them in the field of eliminating physical, social and environmental problems situations;

– promoting the idea of teaching people with disabilities in general education institutions together with everyone, namely the promotion of inclusive education and the provision of comprehensive assistance in obtaining knowledge;

– assisting persons with disabilities in acquiring a profession, finding employment and, as a result of this, taking a step towards an independent life and making their contribution to social progress;

– Establish support services for persons with disabilities to enable them to participate in society, including the provision of personal assistant services, sign language interpreter services, the provision of Braille publications and other additional services;

– adaptation of services, activities and goods created for persons with disabilities to their needs;

– conducting charitable activities, providing persons with disabilities and members of their families with material assistance and sponsorship;

- involvement in the Association as its members of persons with disabilities, especially young people, protection of their rights, providing them with comprehensive support;

- organization of entrepreneurial activities to achieve the goals outlined in the Charter and obtain funds for self-sufficiency, organization of publishing houses to conduct their activities;

– participation in the development of legislative acts relating to persons with disabilities, making appropriate proposals for draft laws related to their problems, participation in various government projects and programs;

- organization of forums, conferences and other events on the territory of Tashkent, as well as assistance in their holding;

– conclusion of mutually beneficial agreements with foreign charitable foundations, associations and other organizations in order to fulfill the tasks specified in the Charter;

– studying the experience of local and foreign organizations protecting the rights and legitimate interests of persons with disabilities and dealing with their problems, exchanging views with representatives of other organizations on the subject of their experience, establishing friendly relations, organizing various seminars and conferences related to this field, and taking part in them;
– representing the interests of the Association in other state and non-state organizations.
The association may also perform other tasks not prohibited by legislative acts.

III. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE ASSOCIATION

3.1. The association has the following rights:
– to represent and defend the rights and legitimate interests of its members and participants;
- take initiatives on various issues of social life, make proposals to state and executive authorities;
- to take part in the development of decisions of the state and executive authorities in the manner prescribed by legislative acts;
– dissemination of information about their activities;
- Establish mass media and engage in publishing in the prescribed manner;
– create business structures to achieve the goals and objectives outlined in the Charter;
- establish your own symbolism;
– hold meetings and general meetings regarding issues related to their activities.
The association also has other rights provided for by legislative acts.
3.2. The Association has the following obligations:
– comply with the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan;
– ensure freedom of access to information relating to the use of his property and funds;
– to create for the registering body freedom of access to the events held by the Association;
– provide registration, tax and statistical authorities with reports on their activities.
The Association also has other obligations stipulated by legislative acts.

IV. CONDITIONS AND PROCEDURE FOR JOINING MEMBERSHIP AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP IN ASSOCIATION, RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

4.1. Membership in the Association is considered voluntary.
4.2. Citizens of the Republic of Uzbekistan, stateless persons and foreign citizens who have reached the age of 18 and recognize this Charter can be accepted as members of the Association. Admission to the membership of the Association is carried out individually and collectively.
4.3. Entry into membership on an individual basis is carried out on the basis of an application from individuals. And the entry in a collective manner is carried out on the basis of a collective application. An application for admission to membership, individually or collectively, is written to the name of the Chairman of the Association and is considered by the Council.
4.4. The issue of exclusion from membership in the Association, individually or collectively, is considered at a meeting of the Council of the Association.

4.5. Association members are considered equal. Issues of admission to membership and exclusion from membership are carried out on the basis of a decision of the Council.
4.6. Members of the Association have the following rights:
- receive information about the activities of the Association;
- take part in the events held by the Association;
- elect and be elected to the governing bodies of the Association (Election to the post of Chairman of the Council in accordance with the requirements of section 5.3.1 of this Charter);
- make and consider proposals to the governing bodies of the Association regarding their activities;
– voluntary termination of membership.
4.7. The duties of the members of the Association are as follows:
– compliance with the requirements of the Charter of the Association and legislative acts relating to non-governmental non-profit organizations;
– payment of entrance and membership fees;
- taking an active part in the implementation of the goals and objectives of the Association.
4.8. Members of the Association who do not comply with the requirements of this Charter and laws relating to non-governmental non-profit organizations are excluded from the membership of the Association on the basis of section 4.4. Charter.

V. THE RANGE OF POWERS OF THE MANAGING BODIES OF THE ASSOCIATION AND THE PROCEDURE FOR THEIR FORMATION

5.1. The governing bodies of the Association:
- General meeting;
- Advice;
- Chairman of the Association;
- Control Commission.
5.2. The highest governing body of the Association is the General Assembly.
5.2.1. The General Meeting is held when necessary, but not less than once every 5 years. Extraordinary General Meetings may be convened at the initiative of the Council of the Association or the Control Commission. Proposals to convene extraordinary General Meetings are sent to the Chairman of the Association in writing, indicating the date, taking into account the issues to be considered and the time required to prepare for the General Meeting. An Extraordinary General Meeting must be convened no later than 1 month from the date specified in the proposal for convening.
Decisions of the General Meeting are taken by open or closed voting. In case of equality of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Council shall be considered the casting vote.
5.2.2. Powers of the General Assembly:
- accept and approve the Charter of the Association;
– make and approve changes and additions to the Charter;
– make a decision on the reorganization and liquidation of the Association;
- exercise control over the activities of the Association;
- designate the main activities of the Association;
– consider important issues related to the activities of the Association;

– to elect members of the Council and the chairman of the Association for a 5-year term;
- to form the Control Commission of the Association, to elect the chairman and members of the Control Commission for a 5-year term;
- hear and approve the reports of the Chairman of the Association and the Control Commission.
5.2.3. In the intervals between the General Meetings, the activities of the Association are managed by the Council of the Association.
5.3. Association Council:
5.3.1. Members of the Council are elected at the General Meeting by a majority vote of at least 5 people for a 5-year term. The Chairman of the Council is simultaneously considered the Chairman of the Association. Only a person with the status of a disabled person can be elected as the Chairman of the Association.
5.3.2. Council meetings are held at least once a year, but extraordinary meetings may also be convened if necessary. Extraordinary meetings of the Council are convened at the initiative of the Control Commission or at least one of the three members of the Council.
Proposals to convene extraordinary meetings of the Council are sent to the Chairman of the Association in writing, indicating the date, taking into account the issues to be considered and the time required to prepare for the meeting of the Council. An extraordinary meeting of the Council must be convened no later than 1 month from the date specified in the proposal to convene. In case of equality of votes in the adoption of decisions of the Council, the chairman of the Council has a decisive vote.
5.3.3. Powers of the Council:
– control the implementation of decisions of the General Meeting;
– convene extraordinary General Meetings;
– organize and form the working body of the Association;
- approve the staffing and tasks of the Association's employees;
- approve partnership programs, action plans and other documents aimed at the implementation of the goals and objectives outlined in the Charter of the Association;
– control the approval of the current plans of the Association and their implementation;
– to form and approve the structure of the Association;
- manage the property and funds of the Association;
– to consider the issues of admission to the membership of the Association and exclusion from it, to establish the amount of membership fees;
– prepare relevant issues for the General Meetings and include them in the agenda;
- to approve the general annual work plan regarding the statutory activities of the Association;
– convene extraordinary General Meetings of the Association;
- create business entities of the Association in the manner prescribed by law, appoint their leaders;
The Council of the Association may also consider other issues related to the activities of the Association.
5.4. Association Chairman:
5.4.1. The Chairman of the Association is elected by the General Assembly for a 5-year term.
5.4.2. The Chairman of the Association has the following powers:

- lead the working body of the Association;
- together with the Council, approve the staffing and tasks of the Association's employees;
- to carry out general management of the daily working activities of the Association;
– act on behalf of the Association without a power of attorney in accordance with the current legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan;
– conclude agreements on behalf of the Association and carry out other legal actions within the framework of the law;
- keep accounting records of the Association, approve estimates, balance sheet, budget documentation;
- to encourage the employees of the Association, to establish the amount and procedure for encouragement;
- independently and in accordance with the requirements of the current legislation, resolve issues related to the hiring and dismissal of employees of the Association's apparatus, approve the internal labor schedule;
- establish control over the decisions of the governing bodies and ensure their implementation within the established time limits;
– conduct daily work in the field of execution of decisions taken at the General Meeting, exercise control over the execution of tasks.
5.5. Control Commission of the Association:
5.5.1. The members of the control commission of the Association and its chairman are elected by the General Meeting by a majority vote of at least 3 people for a 5-year term.
5.5.2. A member of the Control Commission cannot simultaneously be a member of another governing body of the Association.
5.5.3. Powers of the Control Commission of the Association:
- the chairman of the Control Commission of the Association is directly involved in the activities of the Association;
- The Control Commission of the Association exercises general control over the financial and economic activities of the Association, the execution of decisions of the General Meeting and the Council, as well as the execution of the tasks outlined in this Charter and taking into account the results of the financial activities of the Association;
– The Control Commission at least once annually conducts an audit of the financial and economic activities of the Association;
- in the process of auditing the Control Commission, all necessary documents and information related to the financial and economic activities of the Association are provided;
– The Control Commission provides the General Meeting with a written report on the results of the audit in writing no later than 1 month.
– Convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting;
5.6. Working body:
5.6.1. The working body is drawn up and formed by the Council.
5.6.2. The working body has the following powers:
- develop estimates, balance, budget documentation of the Association;
– organize seminars and trainings on the topic of disabilities;
– organize cultural and mass events based on the needs of persons with disabilities.

VI. LABOR RELATIONS

6.1. The employees of the apparatus of the Association are subject to the labor legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, as well as laws on social security and social insurance of workers.
6.2. Labor relations of the Association's employees are defined in the internal labor regulations.

VII. ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING OF THE ASSOCIATION

7.1. The association keeps records of the results of its activities, and also submits reports to the registration, tax and statistical authorities in the prescribed manner.
7.2. The financial and economic activity of the Association is checked in the manner prescribed by the current legislation, tax, financial and other state bodies within their powers, including auditors when such a need arises.

VIII. SOURCES FOR FORMING CASH AND OTHER PROPERTY OF THE ASSOCIATION

8.1. Buildings, structures, housing, equipment, inventory, funds, including funds in foreign currency, securities and other property are considered the property of the Association.
– The association can buy, rent or use technical non-productive property free of charge;
– on the basis of a decision of the Council to sell, lease, lease, lend or lend various movable or immovable property at its disposal to enterprises, institutions, organizations and individuals;
- according to the code of laws of the Republic of Uzbekistan, it can, in the prescribed manner, take all types of loans and credits from banks, enterprises, other organizations, including foreign organizations.
8.2. The property of the Association is protected by law.
8.3. The association is liable for its obligations with its property, which can be recovered in accordance with the law.
8.4. The property of the Association and the sources of providing it with financial resources consist of the following:
– entrance and membership fees;
– one-time and regular receipts from the founders and participants (members);
– voluntary property contributions, charitable and sponsorship assistance, donations;
– income (profit) received from entrepreneurial activity and used only for Charter purposes;
– other receipts not prohibited by law.

IX. PROCEDURE FOR SUSPENSION OF ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES

9.1. The activities of the Association may be suspended by the court in the event that the Association has violated the Constitution and legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

X. PROCEDURE FOR REORGANIZATION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE ASSOCIATION

10.1. The Association may be reorganized by the decision of the General Meeting of the Association. After the reorganization of the Association, the reorganization of a non-state non-profit organization can be carried out by decision of its supreme body by merging, joining, separating, separating, and transforming in accordance with the Charter of the newly organized Association and article 20 of the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On non-state non-profit organizations". The reorganization of a non-state non-profit organization is carried out in the manner prescribed by law.
10.2. It is carried out according to the decision of the General Meeting or in court. The liquidation of a non-state non-profit organization is carried out in accordance with the procedure prescribed by law.
The procedure for the voluntary termination of the activities of the Association:
– Adopted by the decision of the General Meeting or by open or closed voting. In case of equality of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Council is considered decisive;
- The General Meeting of the Association, which made a decision on the liquidation of the Association, elects a liquidation commission in agreement with the registration body of justice.
10.3. The property of the liquidated Association is used for the purposes provided for by the Charter. The property remaining after satisfaction of creditors' claims cannot be distributed among the participants (members) of the Association, as well as among members of the governing bodies or employees of the Association.

XI. PROCEDURE FOR INTRODUCING CHANGES AND ADDITIONS TO THE CHARTER

11.1. Changes and additions to the Charter of the Association are made in accordance with the established procedure on the basis of the decision of the General Meeting.
11.2. Amendments and additions made to the Charter are re-registered by the state in accordance with the procedure established by law.
11.3. The rules not provided for by this Charter are regulated on the basis of the legislative acts of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Rakhimova Mukhabbat Akhrarovna Signature_____